NUMB. 2490

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15. 1743.

Naples, May 28.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to renew the Orders issued some time ago, for the raising 12,000 fresh Troops, which are to be formed into Six Regiments, each of Two Battalions. These Regiments are to be commanded by the Princes of Riccia-Capua, San-Severo-Sangro, and Castellaneta-Mirobello, the Dukes of Montenégro-Caraffa and Laurenzano-Gaetani, and the Marquis of San-Marco-Cavaniglia. The Queen is perfectly recovered of her Lying-in, and the Princess of which she was deliver'd, is a fine thriving Child. Cardinal Aquaviva, who is to hold her Highness at the Font in the Name of the King of Spain, is expected every Moment from Rome, his Baggage and Servants being already arrived.

Leghorn, June 1. On the 27th of last Month there arrived here from Gayeta, a Genoese Vessel in four Days, from the Crew of which we learn, That there sailed lately from Naples for San Stephano, a large Bark laden with Powder, Bullets, and other Ammunition, under the Convoy of two Galliots, and that these Vessels in their Voyage had taken a Brigantine of Barbary, the Crew of which, consisting of 21 Men, were made Slaves; and that this Prize they had sent into Gayeta. The Master of an English Vessel, which arrived here the same Day from Venice and Messina, assures us, That on May 21, he met, at the Height of Cape Anzo, three Men of War, one of 80 Guns, and the other two of 50 Guns each, with two Bomb-Vessels, that were making the best of their Way to Naples, in order to prevent his Sicilian Majesty's sending the Succours he has promised to the Duke of Modena and the Count de Gages. Yesterday Morning arrived here an English Man of War from Genoa, and another anchor'd in our Road in the Evening. This last sailed on the 28th from Villafranca, where there were two other Ships of War of the same Nation. The Captain informs us, that Admiral Mathews has 37 Men of War under his Command.

Munich, June 9. About eight in the Morning the Austrian Garison enter'd this City. It consists of two Companies of the Regiment of Walseg, and 2 or 300 Croats and Hussars. The Gates were opened upon the first Summons; because, as the Austrians carried off Hostages when they quitted the Town last, we are still under the first Capitulation. This was signified to the Officer who commanded in Chief, before he was admitted, who readily agreed as to the Fact, and promised that his Troops should observe strict Discipline. We still flatter ourselves here, that Affairs will quickly take a new Turn. In 3 or 4 Days the Armies of M. Seckendorff, M. Broglio, and the Count de Save, will join under the Cannon of Ingoldstadt; they will then form a Body of between 40 and 50,000 fighting Men; and when once they are join'd by the Detachment which is marching from the Army of Marshal de Noailles, they will undoubtedly act offensively.

Hanover, June 14. We flatter'd ourselves, that his Britannick Majesty would have remained here till the 28th, but his Departure is fix'd for the 17th or 18th at farthest. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland set out about five o'Clock this Afternoon for Cassel, in order to pay a Visit to Prince Frederick of Hesse and his Sister. His Royal Highness proposes to stay two or three Days there, and then proceed to the Army. It is not yet known, whether the Foreign Ministers who are here will follow his Majesty to the Army, or not; but we rather incline to think they will remain here. A Courier is just arrived here from the Army in the Neighbourhood of Franckfort, and he brings Advice, that the French have actually detatch'd between 12 and 15,000 Men for Bavaria, who, for the greater Expedition, march without Baggage or Carriages of any Sort; and that they were advanced as far as Nordlingen on the 9th Instant.

Brussels, June 19. We make very great Rejoicings here on the account of the Success of the Queen, our Sovereign's, Arms in Bavaria. This Morning arrived a Courier from the Hague, with the good News of the States inclining to send their 20,000 Men where her Majesty shall judge most expedient. General Deimar is charged with the Queen's Commission for regulating all Things relating to their March. The Elector of Bavaria has sent an Officer to the Court of Berlin, to beg his Prussian Majesty's Interposition, in order to procure him better Terms than those which have been proposed. The Prince de Ligne, who was to have negotiated a Loan of 300,000 Florins at the Rate at 4 per Cent. with the States of Hainault, meets with more Obstacles than he expected; and, it is doubted, will not succeed. We are assured here, that as soon as the Campaign is over, Prince Charles will come hither, and take into his own Hands the Government of these Provinces.

Last Monday Morning a great Number of the Nobility pass'd through Old-street and Hackney Marsh, and afterwards Breakfasted at Queen Elizabeth's Lanthorn, commonly called Ruckholt House, in Essex.

From the London Gazette.

Admiralty Office, June 14. Capt. Tyrrel, Commander of his Majesty's Bomb Vessel the Comet, arrived the 10th Instant at Spithead, having parted with Commodore Knowles the 10th of May, about 45 Leagues North West from Porto Rico: He brings Letters from that Commander, dated the 3d of May at Sea, giving an Account, that having put his Squadron into as good a Condition for Service as he was able, he sailed from Curacoa the 20th of March, intending to have stretched over for Porto Cavallo; but by reason of a strong Lee Current, it was the 15th of April before he could come to an Anchor with his Squadron under the Keys of Barbarat, a little to the Eastward of that Place. Mr. Knowles taking a View of the Enemy's Situation, saw twelve of their smallest Ships and three Gallies hawl'd up to the Head of the Harbour, out of Gun-shot, and two large ones, of 60 and 40 Guns, moor'd close over to the other Shore, as there was not Depth of Water for them to go up the Harbour. One Ship was laid across the Channel in the Harbour's Mouth, ready to sink, to prevent their entring, with a Chain from the Castle to her Stern, and another from her Head to the Main, where were 3 Fascine Batteries, which extend a considerable Length, and lately made. On a low Point, called Ponta Brava, were two other new Fascine Batteries, one of 12 Guns, the other of Seven; but perceiving they were ill designed, and might easily be flanked, he thought it would be no difficult Matter to render himself Master of them; and that if the Attempt succeeded, the Guns of both might be made use of against the Castle: Accordingly it was agreed, at a general Consultation held next Morning, to send in two Ships in the Afternoon, to cannonade those Batteries, and to land the Volunteirs, with about 400 Seamen, the Detachment of Dalzell's Regiment, and all the Marines, to take Possession, after the Ships had silenced them; their Retreat being securely guarded by his Majesty's Ship the Assistance, which lay within Pistol-shot of the Shore. The Ships that were sent in to cannonade the Batteries, made them quiet by Sun-set, and by Dark all Firing had ceased on both Sides; the Forces, consisting of about 1200 Men, Seamen and Soldiers, landed under the Command of Major Lucas; and on their March, which was all the Way on a Beach by the Water-side, the Commodore accompanied them in his Boat. About Eleven o'Clock he saw the Van Fire, and (as he apprehended) engaged with the Enemy; soon after which, two Guns were fired from the Fascine Batteries, and presently after he saw the Men running back in Confusion and Disorder, which they did not overcome till they got on board. On the 21st a General Consultation of Officers was held, wherein Consideration being had of the late Miscarriage of the Seamen and Land Forces, against the Fascine Batteries, it was resolved to form one General Attack, with all the Ships and Forces, against the Castle and Fascine Batteries; accordingly on Sunday the 24th about Noon, a small Breeze springing up, the Commodore made the Signal and weighed, and ran down in the Order agreed on; the Assistance, Burford, Suffolk and Norwich to batter the Castle, and the Scarborough, Lively, and Eltham, against the two Fascine Bateries. They began Cannonading about One o'Clock, and continued till past Nine at Night, with great Obstinacy on both Sides. The Enemy sometimes slackened their Fire, good Execution having been done upon them in dismounting their Guns, beating several Embrasures into one, and silencing the Fascine Batteries; but as Night came on, they grew brisker in their Fire, and did more Mischief; and some of the Ships having expended all their Ammunition, others the greatest Part, and most of them being so shattered in their Masts and Rigging, as scarce to be able to set a Sail, the Commodore made the Signal to cut, and went and anchored about a Random Shot Distance. During the Cannonading, the Enemy had sunk their Ship that lay in the Harbour's Mouth, which effectually stopped up the Channel. The next Morning the Squadron weighed, and got again under the Keys of Barbarat, to refit, and in the Evening were joined by the Advice, which lost Company three Days after they sailed from Curacoa. On the 28th, at a General Consultation it was agreed, that the Squadron was no longer in a Condition to undertake any Enterprize against the Enemy; upon which the Commodore sent away the Station-Ships to their respective Stations. Before he left the Coast he agreed to an Exchange of Prisoners with the Governor of Porto Cavallo; and the Officer who was appointed by the Enemy to manage that Matter, confirmed the Accounts

Mr.

Mr. Knowles had received from ſeveral Deſerters, as well as from the exchanged Engliſh Seamen, viz. that there were upwards of 1200 Seamen belonging to the Ships and Gallies in the Harbour, and the Factors, Companies Servants, Gunners, and Soldiers, were about 300 Men more; beſides about 4000 Indians, Mulatoes, and Blacks, whom the Governor of Caracca's ſent down, when he received Intelligence of an Attack being intended.

Dr. JOHNSON's Famous YELLOW OINTMENT.

Formerly made by GEORGE HINDE of Vaux-Hall, is now Made and Sold by his Daughter, at Tho. Singleton's in Lambeth Butts.

THE Virtues of this YELLOW OINTMENT, or GOLDEN UNGUENT (amongſt others) are theſe, viz. It is moſt excellent in the Cure of all ruby Faces; it takes out ſpeedily all Manner of Pimples, and makes the Skin ſmooth. It likewiſe takes away all Freckles in the Face. This OINTMENT infallibly cures and takes away all Carbuncles, Scabs, Scurf, and other Deformities of the Skin; it alſo cures (or rather deſtroys) Tetters and Ringworms of all Sorts; Shingles, and the Itch, let it be never ſo inveterate. And whereas ſome may think, or conclude, becauſe it is an exterior Medicine, it may ſtrike in the peccant Humour, and thereby the Remedy become worſe than the Diſeaſe: I do affirm, that this GOLDEN UNGUENT is ſo order'd and prepar'd, that it firſt draws out the venomous Humour, and in a ſhort time after heals the Part afflicted, to Admiration. Indeed, for the firſt three or four times anointing, 'twill ſeem much worſe than at firſt, but after that you will find its Operation to Satisfaction.

This OINTMENT is made up in Galipots, ſealed with a Falcon, and will hold good at leaſt Seven Years. The Price of each Pot is One Shilling and Sixpence, and is continued to be Sold at the following Places (where you may have it pure and no ways adulterated) viz. Mrs. Markham's, at the Seven Stars facing St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleet-ſtreet; Mrs. Garraway's, at the Royal Exchange Gate, Cornhill; Mr. Seth Ayling, at the Riſing Sun the Lower End of the Minories, Haberdaſher of Small Wares; Mr Davis, Breeches-maker, in Piccadilly, next Door to the Three Kings; Mr. Beverly, about the Middle of King's-ſtreet, Weſtminſter, a China-ſhop; Mr. Dumbleton, Baker, in Stanhope ſtreet near Clare-market; Mrs. Sarah Rogers, a Perfumer, at the Civet Cat in the Poultry; Mr. Bradſhaw, at the Golden Key under the Piazza at the Back of the Royal Exchange, Cornhill; and Mr. Hugh Roſſiter, at the Sign of the Sun, a Haberdaſher of Small Wares, in Newgate-ſtreet.

The ſo-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cure HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, ſo as never to return again, be they ever ſo ſevere, or of many Years ſtanding, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual: and that by immediately ſtriking at the very Root or true Cauſe, as well as removing the Effects, of thoſe perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almoſt all the Diſeaſes poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Riſe from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigeſtion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Diſorders in the firſt Paſſages, ill Fumes, ſour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneaſineſs in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Conſent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce ſometimes Giddineſs, Dimneſs of Sight, confuſed Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troubleſome Sleep, Frights, groundleſs Fears, and the deepeſt Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehenſions; at other times, Fits, Flufhing Heats, Reachings, Faintneſs, Lowneſs and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulſive Diſorders, ſharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakneſs in the Back, and other, almoſt innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miſerably affict vaſt Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their ſharpeſt Paroxyſms, theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the moſt valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the higheſt Degree of Perfection poſſible) inſtantly quell, and at the ſame time annihilate their real Cauſe, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digeſtion, occaſioning laudable Chyle, and, of courſe, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerve; ſo that both Cauſe and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almoſt on the Spot, as the many Thouſands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be ſenſible they are abſolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and laſting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.

PARALYTICON, ſeu Anima Nervorum. A Stupendous Chymical Eſſence, which infallibly cures the PALSY, and all other NERVOUS DISEASES:

THE very firſt Doſe of it (a few Drops only) inſtantly penetrates the inmoſt Receſſes of the minuteſt Nerves, and darting almoſt as quick as Lightning thro' the whole Human Syſtem, diffuſes kindly Warmth and genial Comfort into weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate ſenſible Relief in the moſt obſtinate Palſy, and all Paralytick Affects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and Weakneſs, whether univerſal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very firſt Doſe makes an apparent demonſtrable Amendment, ſo the continuing of it for a ſhort Time as ſurely accompliſhes a perfect Cure, not only of the moſt grievous Palſy or Relaxation of the Nerves, but alſo of their Cramp-like Contractions, Shrinking of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints whatever, and that in Perſons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occaſioned by preceding Illneſſes, faſt Living, hard Drinking, long Courſes of Phyſick, great Colds, or exceſſive Fatigues either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot ſufficiently expreſs the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vaſtly ſuperior Excellency to all other Remedies, may be more ſecurely rely'd on, for the abſolute Cure of the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Indiſpoſitions, than the Celebrated Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, enriches the Blood, reſtores the vital Vigour and ſteady Uſe of the Limbs, and ſtrengthens the infeebled Joints, Muſcles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to an immenſe Degree.

It is alſo very pleaſant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngeſt Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

An Infallible REMEDY
For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,

WHich has been publiſhed and ſold many Years before any Counterfeits in other Forms appeared; and highly commended from one Friend to another. The vaſt Quantities that have been ſold do alſo verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it moſt perfectly cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a ſmall time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Paſſages obſtructed by Humours dripping thereon, occaſion'd by hard Riding, Colds, &c. It cauſes preſently a free Perſpiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures thoſe Horſes only a little touch'd in their Wind, as alſo all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezing, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Diſtempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preſerving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horſes have been made ſo perfectly ſound, that they have been ſold and valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by being Broken-winded, could not before be ſold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is ſold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. the Quart Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where elſe in England.
